Mouse blow gun with safety pipe and air plug

AIRSET® MOUSE

Code: MSE H3 1004E74

Mouse L130 OSHA Blow Gun with air plug, already mounted, European profile DN 7.4, for connection to a quick-release couplings. Equipped with a special safety vent tube: in case the outlet hole is blocked, the air exits through side vents. Compliant with OSHA standards. The gun features a bent tube in stainless steel, suitable for tough environments and extreme conditions.

Ergonomics

The grip is designed to facilitate vertical use, ideal when air supply lines are above the work surface. This solution avoids unnatural wrist and forearm movements often required with traditional blow guns. With our grip, you will benefit from superior ergonomics and a more comfortable and efficient working experience.

Efficiency

The Mouse blow gun with quick coupling offers a fast connection to air compressors thanks to its specially designed fittings, allowing operators to save time during setup and optimize operational efficiency.

Reliability

In the use of compressed air, safety is a top priority. Ensuring a flawless connection is essential to prevent leaks, which frequently occur in fittings or couplings. Providing a high-quality connection not only promotes economic and energy savings but also improves workplace safety. Mouse blow guns with air plugs ensure a reliable seal and consistent connection quality, contributing to a safer work environment.
